Conversation Starters for Home Reading

Questions to ask your child about their book — builds comprehension through real conversation.

Real conversation about books builds comprehension in a natural, low-pressure way. You don't need to ask every question — pick one or two that fit the moment.

Before Reading

- What do you think this book will be about, based on the cover?
- Have you read anything else by this author, or on this topic?
- What are you hoping happens in this story?

During Reading

- What's happening so far? Can you sum it up?
- Who is your favourite character right now, and why?
- Is anything confusing? Let's re-read that part together.
- What do you think will happen next?

After Reading

- What was the most exciting or interesting part?
- How did the main character change from the beginning to the end?
- Would you recommend this book to a friend? Why or why not?
- If you could ask the author one question, what would it be?
